DEAF AND HARD OF HEARING

ALEXANDER GRAHAM BELL ASSOCIATION FOR THE DEAF AND HARD OF HEARING (AG BELL)

Website: www.agbell.org

Application form:

www.listeningandspokenlanguage.org/uploadedFiles/Learn/Financial_Aid_Programs/2013%20APPLICATION.pdf

Application deadline: March 15, 2013

Eligibility:

- Listening and Spoken Language must be the applicant's primary mode of communication.

Applicants with cochlear implants meet this eligibility requirement. Unilateral (one-sided) hearing loss does not qualify. Formula for calculating the PTA: On the unaided audiogram, look at the results for the better hearing ear at 500, 1000 and 2000 Hz and add those three numbers together, then divide that total by three. The result is the Pure Tone Average. To be eligible for this program, the applicant's PTA must be 60 or greater.
- Applicant must be enrolled in or have applied to a mainstream and accredited college/university as a full-time student. This means that, for the 2013-2014 academic year, the applicant must be a fulltime undergraduate or graduate student pursuing a bachelors, masters or doctorate degree at a mainstream college or university.

CANADA / NEW BRUNSWICK STUDENT LOANS PROGRAM

Student financial assistance from the Government of Canada and the Government of New Brunswick is designed to help eligible New Brunswick residents access post-secondary educational opportunities and to encourage them to complete their education in a timely and successful manner.

All federal and provincial student loan, grant and bursary programs for New Brunswick post-secondary students are administered by Student Financial Services.

Information regarding financial assistance for part-time students can be obtained at canlearn.ca or by calling Student Financial Services.

You are eligible for student financial assistance if you:

- are a Canadian citizen, have permanent resident status or are considered to be a protected person as defined in the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act;
- are a resident of New Brunswick;
- demonstrate a financial need;
- are enrolled in, and maintain, a minimum of 60 per cent of a full-time course load (students with a permanent disability must enrol in at least 40 per cent of a full-time course load) to get a full-time loan, and between 20 per cent and 59 per cent to get a part-time loan (between 20 and 39 per cent for students with a permanent disability). Students with a permanent disability taking between 40 per cent and 59 per cent of a full-time course load can elect to be in full-time or part-time studies;

- are enrolled in a degree, diploma or certificate program that is at least 12 weeks in duration at a designated postsecondary educational institution;
- maintain a satisfactory scholastic standard;
- are not in default on a previous student loan;
- pass a credit check (this applies to students who are 22 years of age or older who are applying for a student loan for the first time);
- are not beyond your program length, plus one academic year (called your Periods of Study + 1 limit);
- are not beyond 340 weeks of eligible assistance (called your lifetime limit). This is 400 weeks for students in doctoral studies, or 520 weeks for students with permanent disabilities.

The Government of Canada provides 60 per cent of your assessed need in the form of Canada Student Loan funding, up to a maximum of $210 per week of study. The Government of New Brunswick provides 40 per cent of your assessed need in the form of New Brunswick Student Loan funding, up to $140 per week of study. This funding is issued on one integrated Certificate of Eligibility and Canada Student Loan and New Brunswick Student Loan Agreement (commonly known as “Certificate of Eligibility”).

With one full-time application, you will be automatically considered for student financial assistance, including loans, grants and bursaries, from both the Government of New Brunswick and the Government of Canada.

These include:

- Canada Student Loan and New Brunswick Student Loan
- Canada Student Grant for Students from Low-Income Families
- New Brunswick Student Grant for Students from Low-Income Families
- Canada Student Grant for Students from Middle-Income Families

- Canada Student Grant for Students with Dependents
- Canada Student Grant for Students with Permanent Disabilities
- New Brunswick Bursary

A separate application is required if you are applying for the Canada Student Grant for Services and Equipment for Persons with Permanent Disabilities.

PERMANENT DISABILITY PROVISIONS

To qualify for permanent disability assistance, you must:

- Have a functional limitation caused by a physical or mental impairment that restricts the ability of a person to perform the daily activities necessary to participate in studies at a post-secondary level or in the labour force; and
- Be able to provide proof of the disability, describing its type and substantiating that it is expected to remain with the person for the person's expected natural life.

Proof could be in the form of:

- a document showing that you are receiving federal and/or provincial disability assistance;
- a medical certificate; or learning disability assessment.

The Canada Student Loans Program provides for the availability of relaxed eligibility criteria and grant assistance for persons who demonstrate that they have a permanent disability that restricts their ability to participate in post-secondary studies.

A person with Permanent Disability Status is eligible for:

- Reduced Course Loads
- Longer Period of Studies
- Repayment Assistance Plan (RAP) and Repayment Assistance Plan for Students with Permanent Disabilities (RAP-PD)
- Permanent Disability Benefit
- Canada Student Grants

Reduced Course Loads

If you are a full-time student with a permanent disability, you may be eligible for a Canada or New Brunswick student loan if your course load represents at least 40% of a full-time course load.

If you are a part-time student with a permanent disability, you may be eligible for a part-time loan if your course load represents at least 20% (but less than 60%) of a full-time course load.

Longer Period of Studies

A lifetime maximum of 520 weeks of Canada student loan assistance under the permanent disability provisions. This is to allow for the possible longer period of time it may take for a student to complete a program of studies at a reduced course load.

Repayment Assistance Plan (RAP) and Repayment Assistance Plan for Students with Permanent Disabilities (RAP-PD)

The Repayment Assistance Plan (RAP) can help if you have difficulty in making your student loan payments. The National Student Loans Service Centre (NSLSC) administers the RAP on behalf of the governments of Canada and New Brunswick. There is a RAP available specifically for students with a permanent disability.

Permanent Disability Benefit

If you are unable to repay your Canada student loan because of your permanent disability, you may qualify for the Permanent Disability Benefit. This benefit reduces the outstanding student loan principal to zero. Benefit recipients are not eligible to receive further financial assistance.

Applications may be made when a student has completed studies and is required by the lender to make payments on his/her Canada student loan. Permanent Disability application kits that include detailed eligibility criteria are available by calling the National Student Loans Service Centre at 1 (8888) 815-4514 (repayment assistance).

CANADA STUDY GRANTS

You must submit a separate application form for the Canada Student Grant to the same authority. The application form is available at: studentaid.gnb.ca.

Applicants are therefore encouraged to apply at the earliest opportunity.
